² See next table for in depth ratings.

³ Cattle fed exclusively grass their entire lives. See USDA Grass Fed marketing claims regulations for more info.

⁴ Welfare standards in kosher South American slaughterhouses are notoriously low. I don't recommend eating any kosher meat sourced from South America.

⁵ Grain finished beef cattle start out their life on pasture and are then confined and fed a mix of grain and hay for several months before slaughter.
